

Swiss TBM Owners & Pilots - 2024 Event Invitation

Co-Hosted by:

Location:

Date:
09 June 2024

Contact:
Marc Duchesne # +41 (0)79 890 02 02 or marc.duchesne@swissflyaero.com

9.30 – 10.30	Welcome & Breakfast
10.00 – 17.00	Introduction of the latest development of the TBM 960 The Pilot Perfectionist Apps – Me & My TBM
10.00 – 17.00	Pratt & Whitney Canada Description presentation of the boroscope test New aftermarket services 2024 Engine Service Guarantee
10.00 – 17.00	Garmin Avionics Solution Sharing of their expertise on avionics upgrades and more
10.00 – 17.00	Projekt-Arbalete.ch Rebirth of a Swiss legend
10.00 – 17.00	The Swiss Baron of Ferry Flights Flying...once upon a time
10.00 – 17.00	Cellcius Aero Development of a hydrogen powertrain for a Swiss Lightwing AC4
10.00 – 17.00	Women Pilots There is more to life than being a passenger.
10.00 – 17.00	Sea2Sky - Financing Services Key factors that affect the choice of financing
10.00 – 17.00	GreenGT Hydrogen Pioneers Challenges of the hydrogen in the aviation and the Swiss expertise
10.00 – 17.00	AOPA CH – Your Freedom to Fly Support activities
10.00 – 17.00	Mecanair: Meet of the maintenance team of our accredited Service Centre
10.00 – 17.00	Networking with TBM owners and pilots
05.00 – 09.30 17.30 – 21.30	Recreational activities Flying Balloon [subject to a fee & depending on the weather]

Recreational Activities: Discovery the World of Balloning

The flight lasts about one hour and takes place at a maximum altitude of around 3,000 meters (Flight Level 95).

The total time required is three to four hours.

These flights take place on the 9th early morning from 5.00 to 9.00 or late afternoon from 17.30 to 21.30.

Note:

A special price per person is 300 CHF.

Hotel arrangement might be done on request and can be organised by SwissFly Aero.

Our Partners

